for a while me, my whole family, mom brothers, sisters nieces, nephews aunts & uncles and my beautiful daughter & precious grand daughter all stayed together in my nephews trailer in the Kiln. The heat was relentless my mom is diabetic, has a heart condition. The heat caused her to get really sick. We spent the night in the hospital, I thought she was having a heart attack & dying. The next day we left town for Georgia to another nephews house & stayed there for almost a month. My daughter & I became separated for the first time through this night mare she went to Memphis / then boyfriend we couldn't talk no phones for me & her I think that was the worst part. We are very close. I had just went through a divorce right before the storm. I had just moved to Waveland close to the beach (1 block) it was always a dream of mine to live by the beach. I was born & raised in Bay St. Louis. I love it, its my home all I want for Christmas is to go home and start over once again. I want my daughter to go to school to become a nurse it'll be Okay. She's strong & determined. God Bless my home my family my community & God Bless the whole world be not afraid. Love & support Merry
